Overview

Joanne's mission – to guide educators in creating brain-friendly, language-rich, interactive learning environments, where classrooms are alive and students thrive. Making Words Real Joanne Billingsley, a former regional Texas Teacher of the Year, is a consultant, author, keynote speaker and nationally – acclaimed lecturer. She has combined current neuroscience research with best practices in teaching to develop powerful new tools and learning strategies for classroom teachers. Described as “authentic” and “in touch with teachers” Joanne inspires and motivates educators to explore new techniques for reaching and teaching all students, particularly ELLs, special education students and those that struggle to succeed in school.
