Overview

OneSeventeen Media, Texas' first certified B Corp, is passionate about making kids' lives better and easier to manage. By creating relevant mental health mobile tools, we help them navigate their world in a respectful, responsible and confident way to become successful, productive global citizens.

reThinkIt! is a digital mental health platform using Minty, our chatbot assistant and an evidence-based "early detection" assessment to help middle school students better process difficult emotions, understand their own behaviors, and navigate those of others.
