Overview

Alive Studios Zoo is a woman-owned company that has developed a patented 3D augmented reality technology to create mind-boggling learning experiences for early learners. Alive Studios' supplemental resources are in thousands of schools across America and 26 countries around the world. Fill your classroom with 26 magical zoo animals that come alive with novel and collaborative 3D technology. Your students will experience a thrilling and joy-filled learning environment for early reading and math when using our full-year supplemental classroom resources designed for Pre-K and Kindergarten. Our patented solutions are independently researched and proven to increase outcomes for Pre-K and Kindergarten students as well as for ELL and Special Education students of all ages. Your students will build solid foundations for Literacy, Math, STEM, and Social-Emotional skills they need for continued academic success. And, our classroom resources do not require internet or subscriptions! Our mission is to create a joy-filled and engaging 21st-century learning experience that wins early literacy for every PreK and Kindergarten child in America.
