TV star Stephen Collins faces molestation investigation

From staff and wire reports New York police say they have an open investigation into allegations that veteran TV actor Stephen Collins molested a teenage girl in the early 1970s.

David says the case remains open, but no charges have been filed. TMZ reported Tuesday that Collins, 67, discussed the incident in a therapy session with his estranged wife, Faye Grant.

also included allegations that her husband admitted the molestation in documents filed in their divorce case last year. In the wake of development, cable television networks, including UP TV, said Tuesday they would not broadcast returns of Collins' series 7th Heaven. Collins' lawyer Mark Vincent Kaplan did not return phone messages seeking comment Tuesday. TMZ reported that Collins had resigned a leadership post with the SAG-AFTRA actor's union, and Entertainment Weekly reported he had been fired from the movie Ted 2.
