Terms and Conditions, Freight from page 10 "shall be included in all pricing..."

We sell only vertical package HVAC units. The physical size varies with the capacity of the unit but they are from 71" to 87" tall and 36" to 43" wide weighing between 282 lbs. to 525 lbs. Its size makes freight an important cost depending on the distance it needs to travel.

In order for our price to include the freight costs, we would have to include the freight cost to the furthest TIPS member location from our factory in Longview, Texas for one unit. This would cost all the members who are closer to Longview plus there would be no savings for shipping more than one unit in the same shipment, a savings which can be significant.

We propose offering pricing that does not include freight cost. Shipments would be FOB Origin, Longview, Texas. We would be glad to provide freight estimates as requested.

Term and Conditions, Customer Support

Installers are expected to be trained air conditioning technicians. Our training would be specifically for Eubank units. We also have technical support by phone.

Qualifications

National Coil Company purchased the Eubank name and Longview manufacturing facilities from Fedders in 2008. Eubank was originally a family business based in Longview, Texas and had a strong presence in the HVAC industry.

We are now a part of ten HVAC related companies operating under one parent company which was founded in 1947. Besides financial strength, this gives us access to a wealth of talent in all aspects of our business.

A national entity, we ship to all of the United States and are active in the HVAC industry supporting groups such as ASHRAE, HARDI, ACCA and AHRI.

Proud to be a "Made in USA" manufacturer, we are focused on quality manufacturing not only the finished product but components of that product such as coils and copper fittings. We strive to control our quality by doing as much as we can in-house.

Our inside sales includes an experienced technical representative to help service techs when needed. We also maintain a website, www.eubankncc.com, which includes technical information and manuals on our wallmounts. Sales materials such as the flyers in section 8 of this proposal are also available.

Maintaining a large inventory in Longview, Texas, we can generally ship within a week.
