The Region VIII Education Service Center is a political subdivision of Texas. TEX. EDUC. CODE §8.001 et seq. Texas Education Code §8.002(a) permits regional education service centers, at the direction of the Commissioner of Education, to provide services to assist school districts in improving student performance and increasing the efficiency and effectiveness of school operations. Authority for such services is granted under sections 791.001 to 791.029 of the Local Government Code; V.T.C.A. as amended ("TICA"). TICA also expressly states that a party to an interlocal contract may contract with a similar agency of another state. TEX. GOV'T CODE §791.011(b)(2).

Arizona law permits school districts to participate in intergovernmental agreements and contracts. ARIZ. REV. STAT § 11-951, et seq. Arizona law provides that two or more public agencies by contract or agreement may contract for services or jointly exercise any powers common to the contracting parties and may enter into agreements with one another for cooperative action. ARIZ. REV. STAT § 11-952 (A). "Public agencies" are defined as "this state, any other state, all departments, agencies, boards and commissions of this state or any other state or any other state, counties, school districts, . . . and any other political subdivisions of this state or any other state." ARIZ. REV. STAT § 11-951. A Texas regional service center is a political subdivision of the state of Texas. TEX. EDUC. CODE § 8.001, et seq. Therefore, because a regional service center is a "public agency" Arizona public school districts, or other local governments, have statutory authority to contract with a Texas regional service center to jointly exercise any powers common to the contracting parties or to participate in cooperative action
