The Texas Education Code §8.002 permits Regional Education Service Centers, at the direction of the Commissioner of Education, to provide services to assist school districts, colleges and universities in improving student performance and increasing the efficiency and effectiveness of school, college and university financial operations.

Government Authority:

Cooperative Purchasing is authorized under Colorado Law. COLO.REV.STAT . § 24-110-201. Specifically, a public procurement unit may either participate in, sponsor, conduct or administer a cooperative purchasing agreement for the procurement of any supplies, services or construction with one or more public procurement units or external procurement units. Id. Under Colorado Law, cooperative purchasing includes joint or multiparty contracts between procurements units and open ended purchasing agency contracts made available to local governments. Id. A “public procurement unit” is a local public procurement unit or a stat public procurement unit. Id at §24-110-101. A “local public procurement unit” is any city, county, town, or other public subdivision of the state, including any education district, that expends public funds for the procurement of supplies, services and construction. Id. An “external procurement activity” is a buying organization not located in Colorado which if located in Colorado would be considered a public procurement unit. Id. A Texas regional service center Is a political subdivision of Texas. TEX. EDUC. CODE §8.001, et seq. Therefore, if located in Colorado a Regional Education Service Center would be considered a local public procurement unit. Accordingly, a unit of Colorado government may participate in the TIPS program.
