Overview

Brewer-Garrett BG is a full-service facility solutions company that excels in the energy services and design-build market. Founded in 1959, BG has well over half of century of experience providing public clients' energy solutions. BG's in-house team consists of energy, mechanical, and electrical engineers, project managers, estimators, controls experts, O&M specialists, data analytics team, commissioning agents, and finance specialists. BG utilizes its in-house resources to provide our customers first-tier service to ensure the optimal solution is chosen to directly address the client's project goals. We provide direct engineering and construction project control to ensure quality, keep project costs down, and maximize the customer's return on investment.
