Overview

Everest Trading Corp.

Since starting in 1982, Everest has been the everyday bag company for people in all walks of life. We provide reliable products for people around the world to take things with them in their daily journeys and adventures.

Our mission is to design, manufacture and provide functional, high-quality products to fit the various needs of all people. Our product line includes hundreds of styles; everything from backpacks to messenger bags, tote bags to duffels, multipurpose packs to outdoor luggage and travel gear and everything in between. We strive to bring the latest trends and features into every bag, making it as functional as it is stylish and hip.

Named after the highest and most respected peak in the world, Everest, from its humble beginnings has since been climbing to become the ultimate gear brand possible. Continuing the ascent, we are constantly innovating and developing our products so that it is easier to pack your gear. Whether it is for school or a hike, let Everest help take things with you.
