Overview

Artcom is highly qualified on national, state and local levels with several distinguished government and product certifications. We are the optimal choice for a wide array of complex telecommunications projects, such as DOD facilities, school districts and more. Artcom boasts Cat5e, Cat6, and Fiber Optic certification, extensive engineering support and comprehensive warranties to help provide the infrastructure your business needs to grow and thrive in a busy and competitive marketplace. We can take your system from concept, to design, to installation, while providing the information necessary to help reduce future service costs.
