Overview

Simmons-Johnson provides the following services: contract close-out, auditing, and process improvement. Stephanie S Johnson (CEO) worked in corporate America over 30 years, where she specialized in operational audits and quality process improvement and achieved the Six Sigma Green Belt. Company personnel have worked for one major governmental contractor, General Dynamics in San Diego, California where success was achieved in contract closeout and system process improvement. Work also includes a Department of Defense project at Fort Harrison, Indianapolis Indiana, where personnel was responsible for the conversion of a legacy accounting system to an in-house developed Oracle-based software platform. Training in accounting has been performed for both private and governmental entities.
