Overview

Learning Ally is a leading nonprofit education organization that transforms the lives of early and struggling learners through proven literacy solutions and professional services for educators that serve students from Pre-K through high school. Learning Ally offers an Audiobook Solution, Excite Reading, and Professional Learning solutions to support students in reaching their potential. Learning Ally's Audiobook Solution is an assistive-technology supporting students struggling with reading because of an impairment, disability, or deficiency with reading. Learning Ally's Excite Reading Solution supports all emergent readers in PK - 2nd grade with their comprehension, vocabulary, and background knowledge. Learning Ally's Professional Learning Services provides workshops, coaching, and collaborative communities of practice to comprehensively support educators own professional learning and turn instructional strategies into action for stronger student outcomes. Learning Ally's literacy professional learning workshops and programs combine research-based instruction, collaboration, practice, and coaching to build educators' capacity and meet district literacy goals. Based on brain science and leading instructional practice research, Learning Ally provides new, integrated tools to help educators drive sustainable transformational change in literacy leadership and student achievement.
