Normalcy meets tragedy in Blume's new adult novel

Elot Schreier Special for USA TODAY

Judy Blume was in the eighth grade when, over the span of only a few months, three commercial flights crashed in and around her hometown of Elizabeth, N.J.

Blume's new novel for adults, In the Unlikely Event, fictionalizes the accident-struck town she knew in the 1950s, tracing the lives of its residents as the community is rocked by tragedy after tragedy.

Blume's novels have sold more than 85 million copies, and most of those are accounted by her plain-spoken and frank classics for adolescents, including Are You There God? It's Me, Margaret. Those readers won't be disappointed here. But at the same time, In the Unlikely Event has a much larger canvas to play on than do Blume's novels for younger readers, by spanning generations, her book allows for a deeper examination on what it means to seek individuality within the constraints of family and culture.

Though the viewpoints in the novel rotate among the cast, we return most often to 15-year-old Miri Ammerman. Even as she copes with the local crashes, she has to figure out her young adulthood, navigating her relationships with her beautiful single mother, her wise grandmother and her uncle — and the new acquaintance of Mason, a handsome orphan.

When Mason heroically rescues survivors from the wreckage of one of the planes, it only heightens his attractiveness to

IN THE UNLIKELY EVENT Judy Blume Knopf 397 pp.

Blume's latest is a homespun look at a series of calamities.

BLUME SKIPPED

Miri. While calamity brings out the best in Mason, it does the opposite to Miri's best friend, Natalie, who begins to hear in her head the voice of a glamorous young dancer who died in the first crash.

Few events are more sensational than a plane crash, and Blume seems slyly aware of that — though she follows doomed characters onto the flight and gets them seated, the book tastefully turns away before recounting the crash itself. The narrative switches to newspaper snippets and play-script dialogue during its most heated moments, which prevents it from careening into melodrama.

In fact, Blume's modest writing style is perfectly suited to such a dramatic topic. Her prose is plain, never preening over its own turns of phrase. It's as if Blume doesn't want us to lose sight of what's important: the simple reality of what her characters are going through. For what the novel lacks in surface beauty, it gains in an accumulating sense of homespun honesty.

Despite the hook of its premise, most of In the Unlikely Event isn't crashes and drama, for the long narrative spells between plane crashes, the novel is much more interested in the dynamics of being a person in the ordinary world. The narrative is so deliberate and quiet during those spells that it risks becoming boring — but then, of course, a plane will go down, and the pace jolts to life.

Blume's novels for adolescents are so popular — and so frequently banned — because they delve into sensitive topics like menstruation and masturbation with candor. Adult readers of In the Unlikely Event will encounter that same forthrightness now, but they might find the novel's honesty less transfixing than in the Blume books they read as teenagers.

Then again, when we read about a 50-year-old character confessing that sex with her husband is difficult because "she's not sure she can get there — something new, something perim-pumpkin!" we realize that the same Judy Blume is still there, opening our eyes to the daily astonishments of life all these years later.

PUBLIC NOTICE FOR EIGHT TERMS STARTING IN SEPTEMBER OF 2015

Notice is given that the North East Texas Regional Water Planning Group (NETRWPG) is accepting nominations for positions to serve as voting members. Due to the expiring terms of eight positions, appointments will be made for each of the eight terms. State law and the Bylaws of the NETRWPG require diversity in the membership of the NETRWPG. Section 16.053 of the Texas Water Code lists the required interest groups and the requirement that the regional planning groups maintain adequate representation from those interests. Due to the existing overlap, eight members could be selected from any interest group. To preserve geographical diversity on a county level, selection for terms starting September of 2015, one member must come from the following counties: Hopkins, Hunt, Lamar, Rains, Upshur and Van Zandt. The effort to strive to achieve geographical diversity is found in Article V, Section 4 of the NETRWPG Bylaws. Terms are expiring for positions held by Nancy Clements, Jim Edson, Shirley Shumake, Doug Wesley, Darryl Evans, David Nabors, Darwin Douthett, and Mark Crews. In this selection process, NETRWPG will strive to achieve interest group, geographic, ethnic and gender diversity. There is a vacancy for a remaining term due to the resignation of Drew Roberts. To be eligible, a person must be qualified as set forth in the NETRWPG Bylaws. The conditions of membership are set forth in the NETRWPG Bylaws. This method for submission of nominations shall be to submit nominations to the principal administrative office of the NETRWPG. The mailing address for such office is Northeast Texas Municipal Water District, P. O. Box 955, Hughes Springs, Texas 75856. The physical address of such office is 4100 Farm Road 250, Hughes Springs, Texas 75856. The deadline for submission is June 26, 2015.

NORTH EAST TEXAS REGIONAL WATER PLANNING GROUP

REGION D PUBLIC NOTICE
TUESDAY, JULY 14, 2015 AT 10:00 A.M.
A PUBLIC HEARING WILL BE HELD AT MT. PLEASANT CIVIC CENTER
1800 N. JEFFERSON
MT. PLEASANT, TEXAS 75455

In compliance with the Texas Open Meetings Act, Chapter 551, of the Texas Government Code, and with Section 16.053 (h) (6) of the Texas Water Code, the Regional Water Planning Group D issues this public notice of a public hearing. On July 14, 2015 at 10:00 A.M., the North East Texas Regional Water Planning Group (NETRWPG) will meet. The meeting will be held in the Mt. Pleasant Civic Center, 1800 N. Jefferson, in Mt. Pleasant, Tlax County, Texas.

The purpose of the Public Hearing is to receive comments on the 2016 Initial Prepared Plan (IPP) for Region D. Region D encompasses the following 19 counties: Bowie, Camp, Cass, Delta, Franklin, Gregg, Harrison, Hopkins, Hunt, Lamar, Marion, Morris, Rains, Red River, Titus, Wood, Upshur, Van Zandt and part of Smith County.

A copy of the IPP is available for viewing at the Region D Administrative Office, C/O Northeast Texas Municipal Water District, 4160 FM 2505, Hughes Springs, Texas 75456. A copy of the IPP is also available for viewing at the office of the County Clerk and one public library (if one exists) for each county located within Region D. A copy of the IPP is also available at the Texas Water Development Board's (TWDB) website: <http://www.twdb.texas.gov/waterplanning/vpplans/2016rpp.asp>

Questions related to the public hearing or requests for additional information should be referred to Wall Sears, Jr., Administrator for Region D, at (903) 639-7538 or submitted in writing to the address listed below.

The NETRWPG – Region D will accept written and oral comments at the public hearing. Anyone wishing to make verbal comments must register at the Registration Table prior to the opening of the Public Hearing. Each speaker will be limited to a period not to exceed five (5) minutes. Written public comments may be submitted to the NETRWPG until September 15, 2015, and should be submitted to:
