Overview

Nevins was founded by Brian Nevins in 1979 with a simple belief: solutions by choices. Since our founding, this simple belief remains our credo and has driven us through multiple successful decades and into the future. The Nevins team is composed of individuals who strive to provide nothing short of the best service for our clients - creating the ultimate team atmosphere for our still family-owned business. No matter the project our team is highly committed to providing attractive and competitive solutions.

A standout attribute of Nevins is our sheer breadth of product offerings. Tables for conferencing, training, and dining in addition to comprehensive public seating and creative lounge seating and accessories make our collections truly stand out within the contract furniture industry. And through our constantly updated product line, we are able to consistently stay at the forefront of product innovation.
