Overview

InTech Energy, Inc., doing business as Sanalife, champions the charge towards a sustainable future through pioneering energy management solutions. With the imperative need for energy and water efficiency, Sanalife has crafted a suite of products and software services, fully recognizing the urgency to balance today's environmental needs with tomorrow's sustainability objectives.

Our E360 platform and array of products are a testament to strategic innovation, delivering TIPS members an arsenal for reducing energy and water consumption. Sanalife also offers a low-cost consultation designed to collaboratively develop a customized plan aligning with our client's specific efficiency objectives.

Real-Time Energy and Water Monitoring:

Embracing the data-driven era, our technologies and analytics offer real-time tracking and vital energy and water management. E360 enables detailed management of consumption patterns and guides our clients toward more cost-effective and environmentally responsible operations.

Comprehensive HVAC Solutions:

Sanalife delivers a range of high-efficiency, low-energy HVAC solutions. These solutions are engineered to integrate seamlessly with existing HVAC systems, ensuring improved air quality and optimal climate control. Our solutions focus on maintenance ease, safety, and comfort, underlined by our innovative HVAC induct technologies and IAQ monitoring systems.

Intelligent Lighting Controls:

Our expertise in advanced lighting systems is geared towards efficiency and adaptability. We focus on harmonizing lighting with facility operational hours, occupancy, and daylight patterns, ensuring smart energy usage. This approach underscores our dedication to creating solutions that reduce waste and enhance performance.

Sanalife offers end-to-end support, from design and implementation to prioritizing the longevity and effectiveness of our solutions. Sanalife is committed to customer success and service excellence, ensuring that our solutions are effective, sustainable, and reliable over time.

Commitment To Public and Environmental Health:
Mirroring our dedication to public health with clean air solutions, the Sanalife E360 platform embodies our commitment to environmental health. We provide meticulously tailored solutions that align with our client's energy and water management goals. Our deep expertise and support empower our non-profit clients to make informed choices, positioning us as steadfast partners in the journey toward a more sustainable, efficiently managed future.
