Overview

Rally Inc. is an authorized distributor of medical supplies, equipment, and pharmaceuticals located in Houston, TX. Rally specializes in providing premier customer service from our local reps that are regularly available to provide quality service and find solutions to help improve your medical supply needs. We service the Houston Metro area with orders fulfilled by our own route drivers on a daily basis while also offering statewide and nationwide orders to be fulfilled by best available services such as FedEx, UPS, and FreightCenter for larger palletized orders. Our competitively negotiated ship rates help keep costs low, thus offering non-local customers competitive solutions from our Houston distribution center. We are eager to see how we may help one another to grow together and continually find and provide medical supply chain solutions.
