Overview

Stylex is a family-owned American design brand, established in 1956. For more than six decades we have produced furniture for the modern environment with careful consideration given to balancing aesthetics, performance, value, and service. Our product portfolio of seating, tables, privacy screens, and lounge was designed to be dynamic and highly adaptable, with a comfort-first mindset. The benefit is psychological as well as practical.

We design all of our products for a long, useful life using quality materials that foster durability and sustainability. Made in the USA, the majority of our products meet HHI requirements and are Level and Greenguard Certified.
