Overview

CEG Solutions is a leading national energy services company with a history of delivering transformative sustainability projects. CEG offers the local engineering, implementation capabilities, and project management skills critical to successfully execute energy performance contracts and deliver guaranteed savings. Testament to our capabilities and experience, CEG holds multiple highly competitive federal master ESPC contracts, with contract values greater than $1 billion, with the US DOE and the US Army Corps of Engineers. Our project successes are driven in large part by CEG employees, who have diverse backgrounds in sustainable design and construction, who leverage their experience to turn energy conservation opportunities into realized savings.
