Overview

TG Basile Inc., a credible and renowned specialty contractor with over 50 years of inherited and hands on experience throughout the tristate area. We specialize in delivering diversified, cost-effective services in restoration, new construction and renovation within the commercial, industrial and residential sectors.

Since inception, we have taken great pride in delivering what we promise, on budget and on time to ensure the greatest level of customer satisfaction.

Our method of planning project execution has always been the key that keeps us steps ahead of our competition. We pre-plan & engineer every job by dissecting possible challenges that may arise before starting any project.

Property Managers, Owners, Facilities Managers and General Contractors trust TG Basile to provide the best quality masonry work in the region. For a property you can be proud of, we deliver cost-effective, value-adding building restoration, brick, stone and concrete installation and repair.

Our satisfied clients include managers of commercial, residential and industrial properties throughout New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania and Connecticut. From new construction to parking garage restoration, improvements to façades and structural repair services – call on the area's top masonry contractor, TG Basile.
