Overview

At Personalized Learning Games Inc, Centervention® DBA, we believe every student deserves an opportunity to be successful in the classroom and in life, but all too often, educators see students who can't focus, don't know how to manage their emotions, and have trouble interacting with peers. To address these challenges, we provide online, game-based programs to help students in grades K-8 improve social and emotional skills. These game-based programs are fun for students, automatically gather data so educators can monitor progress, and include supplemental lessons to reinforce learning. With Centervention, educators meet students where they are, address their unique needs, and do so in a fun, effective way.
