Overview

Housman Institute is a research and training organization that specializes in the Emotional, Cognitive, and Social Early Learning for students ages 0-8. Our evidence-based training and curriculum programs seek to go beyond traditional SEL, by infusing training and instruction with Emotional Intelligence and cognitive supports. This allows students to appropriately understand and regulate their emotions, while supporting the emotions of others. Visit www.housmaninstitute.com to learn more about our research, training, and curriculum.
