Overview

We have news...we are now called Diverzify+LLC formerly known as Mr. David's Flooring. This year we have changed our name, but it is been nearly two years ago that our organization launched a review of our brand and business structure against a decade of growth and expansion. This update in our business does not change the way you conduct business with us. All business transaction processes and practices you have used previously are still in effect. We bring the same flooring capabilities you've known in the past, joined by even more strengths and resources. Diverzify+LLC drives innovation in commercial flooring solutions to clients nationally and globally, while setting industry standards for quality and innovation, being the preferred partner of all our vendors, and creating an innovative work environment in which employees thrive. We offer a full service solution for our customers: Sales, Installation and Service.
