Overview

ValidateME! provides critical transcript evaluation services for recent immigrants coming to the United States and entering middle or high school from 81 foreign countries. Transcript evaluation assists with the transition and acculturation of English Learners (ELs) into U.S. school systems and communities by respecting their prior education and streamlining their pathway to meet state graduation requirements and readiness standards for higher education. School districts also reap economic benefits through saving more than of $12 - $15,000/student/year for each year validated that a student does not have to duplicate. The process is simple and effective. The rewards are tangible for all. Procurement of Records Services are also available for students coming from Mexico and El Salvador
